

2024 IEEE Life Member Affinity Group (LMAG) Achievement Award Nomination Form

Nominations are invited for 2024 IEEE Life Member Affinity Group (LMAG) Achievement Award. Self-nomination by LMAG is acceptable for 2024 IEEE LMAG Achievement Award.

To be eligible for the 2024 IEEE LMAG Achievement Award the Life Member Affinity Group (LMAG) should have exhibited significant accomplishments toward achieving Life Member Committee Strategic Goals from 1st January to 31st December 2023. In this nomination form, describe how the LMAG meets LMAG Outreach, Engagement, and Community Involvement goals; Life Member Engagement goals; Advanced the Image of the IEEE and Life Members; and Provided General Support for IEEE Initiatives. An LMAG is not eligible to win the Regional LMAG Achievement Award in a two consecutive year period. [Example: A regional winner of 2021 IEEE LMAG Achievement Award is not eligible for winning the regional 2022 IEEE LMAG Achievement Award.]

Regional Awardees shall be Judged by the Regional Awards Committee (or panel of judges) chaired by the Regional Life Member Coordinator of the region and the winner will receive a commemorative certificate and $500 prize money towards future LMAG Activities. From among all Regional Awardees, the Life Member Committee (LMC) Life Member Awards Committee will select a winner for the Global 2024 IEEE LMAG Achievement Award. The global LMAG winner receives a certificate, $2000 toward future LMAG Activities and expenses paid to the global winner LMAG Chair or designated life member by the Chair to travel to an appropriate event to receive the award recognition. An LMAG is not eligible to win the global LMAG Achievement Award in a three consecutive year period. [Example: A global winner of 2021 IEEE LMAG Achievement Award is not eligible for winning the global 2022 and 2023 IEEE LMAG Achievement Awards.]
